

MAGNIFICENT SPECTACULAR DRAMA OF ROME TO BE SEEN TWO NIGHTS IN CALUMET

A distinct departure in local theatricals will be had with the presentation of the big spectacular drama of early Rome—The Light Eternal—at the Calumet theatre, for two nights, commencing Friday evening, October 11. In announcing the attraction Manager Chidally asserts that an innovation is marked in the general scheme of things governing the routing and management of first class travelling companies.

Whereas in the past it has been thought impossible to give the better class of plays more than one night in Calumet, and to give them at less than the standard $1.50 and $2.00 scale of prices, the remarkable success of The Light Eternal the last two seasons has proven that even smaller profits may be made by an entirely different plan.

The Light Eternal comes to the Calumet stage as a strictly high-class attraction in every respect. It is a beautiful written romantic drama of intense power and broad appeal; it is presented by a large company of some of the most capable men and women in the theatre and contained within its scope and magnificent lines, and what is more, it is presented at moderate or so-called popular prices.

The Light Eternal is now in its fifth successful season. The first three years were spent in the larger cities, last season and the present one being given over to the so-called one-night stands.

SCALPERS ARE NADEED.

Few Grafters Got Rid of Their Tickets at Fancy Prices.

New York, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—With tickets to sell at exorbitant prices were scarce, outside the box grounds today. Few of the scalpers had any great number of the valued parchment. The policy was to clear the church and the spectators and to wait until the doors of the theatre were closed to the public.

Seventeen men charged with "scalping" were arrested. Arrested in the morning court, thirty of them were taken to the police station and held for the night. The police found that the tickets were being sold at prices ranging from $1.50 to $2.00.
